

“Marriage and Family Therapists approved to take the National Association of Marriage and Family Therapy Regulatory Boards Exam during the time between graduation and completing the supervised hours”

Effective March 10, 2020, The Pennsylvania State Board of Social Workers, Marriage and Family Therapists and Professional Counselors has approved the Pennsylvania Association of Marriage and Family Therapists’ request for marriage and family therapists to take the National Association of Marriage and Family Therapy Regulatory Boards Exam during the time between graduation and completing the supervised hours in order to meet licensure requirements. Marriage and family therapists are no longer required to wait until the 3,000 hours of supervised clinical experience has been completed prior to taking the exam. They are permitted to apply for their license in the same manner as if they were ready to take the exam and they will be given the testing confirmation.
